Freedom of Information Act Office

March 29, 2017

Ms. Rachael Tackett

Dear Ms. Tackett:

This is in response to your General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2017-000665) dated March 7, 2017, in which you requested the following:

“Radio Free Asia is a grantee of the Broadcasting Board of Governors. I request reports submitted to FSRs.gov by Radio Free Asia from January 1, 2010 to March 7, 2017. The bottom of the FSRs.gov website says that it is run by the General Services Administration. I am a member of the news media, and I request a full waiver of fees. Disclosure of these records is in the public interest. If any part of this request is denied, I request to be informed by email and to be informed of my rights to appeal.”

GSA's Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act Sub-award Reporting System (FSRS) Technical Team performed a search in FSRs.gov to locate reports submitted by Radio Free Asia from January 1, 2010 to March 7, 2017. The results of the search determined there is no record listing for Radio Free Asia or reports submitted by Radio Free Asia in FSRs.gov. Specifically, the Team did not locate any grant records for Radio Free Asia in FSRs.gov.

Since the agency does not have any records within the scope of your request, this does not constitute a denial of records. You have the right to appeal the adequacy of GSA's search. As such, you may administratively submit your appeal online at the following link: (<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>) or by writing to the following address shown below:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center (H1F)
1800 F St. NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405

Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 120 days of the date of the response to your request. In addition, your appeal must contain a brief statement of the reasons why GSA did not adequately search for responsive documents. Please enclose a copy of your initial request and this denial. Both the appeal letter and envelope or online appeal submission should be prominently marked, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

This response completes GSA's action on this FOIA request. Should you have further questions, please contact Priscilla Owens, Management and Program Analyst, at (703) 605-3408 or by email at priscilla.owens@gsa.gov. You may also contact the GSA FOIA Public Liaison, Audrey Brooks, at (202) 205-5912 or by email at audrey.brooks@gsa.gov for any additional assistance and to discuss any aspect of your FOIA request.

Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448; or facsimile at 202-741-5769.
